RESPONSE TO AMENDMENT

1. Applicant's amendment filed 30 August 2004 is acknowledged. Claims 34-36 and 39-56 are pending and under examination in this office action. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code, not included in this action can be found in a prior office action.

Claim Rejections Maintained

2. The rejection of claims 40, 41, and 50-55 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as lacking written description is maintained for reasons of record in the previous office action and applied to new claim 56.

Applicant argues that the present claims are not directed to compounds, but rather to process steps. Applicant argues that no written description rejections have been applied to the methods of isolating and identifying the compounds. Applicant argues that methods of producing proteins are known and that once a protein is isolated and identified the method of producing more of it is in the possession of the inventor. Applicant additionally argues that the inventor would be in possession of all of the sequences encoding it. Applicant concludes that the inventor would be in possession of producing the product once it is found.

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but have not been found to be persuasive. That one may be in possession of a method of screening, and of identifying compounds selected by the screen, does not indicate that one is in possession of that which might be identified by the screen. In order to make something, one must know what it is. Methods of producing proteins are known and, as Applicant states, once a protein is isolated and identified the method of producing more of it is in the possession of the inventor. However, until the protein is isolated neither it nor the method of producing more of it are in possession of the inventor. The inventor would be in possession of the product once it is found. However, the inventor is clearly not in possession of what has yet to be found and thus cannot produce more of it.

3. The rejection of claims 40, 41, and 50-55 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as lacking enablement commensurate in scope with the claims is maintained for reasons of record in the previous office action and applied to new claim 56.

Applicant argues that the steps of isolating and identifying the compounds have been found to be enabled. Applicant argues that it is a trivial matter to produce a protein once it is identified and undue experimentation is not required. Applicant argues that the claims are not claiming unidentified proteins. Applicant argues that the claims may be readily searched. Applicant argues that the Examiner has not provided any reason why the production of any identified protein would not be enabled.

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but have not been found to be persuasive. A screening method is different from a method of making. One of skill in the art might well be able to screen compounds. However, the nature of the compounds that will be identified by this method is not known. One cannot make something that has not been described. As Applicant states, it is a trivial matter to produce a protein once it has been identified. However, it is not a trivial matter to produce a protein that has not been identified. While Applicant is not claiming unidentified proteins, Applicant is claiming the means for making them. The production of any identified protein would be enabled; however, one cannot produce what one has not identified.

No statement was made by the Examiner as to search difficulties.

CLAIMS 34-36, 39, AND 42-49 ARE ALLOWED. CLAIMS 40, 41, AND 50-56 ARE REJECTED.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
